One: Turn again, O God of hosts; look down from heaven, and see;

Many: Have regard for this vine, O God, the stock that your right hand planted.

One: Give us life, O God. We will call upon your name.

Unison Prayer

Loving God: Jesus said, "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God." In this time of great division and discord in our country and in our world, help us to remember that each of us has the potential to be a peacemaker – to live as the children of God we were created to be. Help us to envision all people as you see them. Help us to dedicate ourselves to becoming instruments of peace in our world. Seeing past the things that divide us, we strive towards creating a world that works for everyone, thereby bringing about your Kingdom of Heaven here on Earth. Amen.

Assurance of Grace and Peace

One: Peace be with you.

Many: And also with you.

One: Let us offer one another a sign of Peace.

Passing the Peace Spirit, Fill Me

Spirit come and fill me, fill me with your peace, fill me with your joy and your love.
Spirit come and show me, show me how to care, show me how to share your light.
Help me give my hand to those in need, let my heart be open to receive.
When we share your love we can work together to heal this broken world.
Spirit come and fill us, fill us with your peace, fill us with your joy and your love.
Spirit come and show us, show us how to care, show us how to share your light.

Words of Integration & Guidance

Rev. William Bausch

In today's Gospel, Jesus says, "Do you think I have come to establish peace on the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division, so that even families will be divided among themselves." Strange words from the Prince of Peace! The fact is, the title "Prince of Peace" never implied that Jesus was harmless. The fact is truth-telling peace would always come at a price, because it would mean we have to give up our habitual participation in the conspiracy of silences we maintain, silences we justify by saying, "Well, we want to keep the peace. We don't want to cause division. We don't want to rock the boat." But, for example, somewhere along the line the family has to stop pretending that Mom's drinking is not really a problem; the community has to stop pretending that it doesn't harbor racism; and the nation has to stop pretending that its economy is not based on the oppression of certain groups. The fact is, we are known as much for our silences as for our actions, for our efforts at peace as well as for the truth that divides and challenges. As an old proverb goes, "The candle says to the darkness, 'I beg to differ.'" Our Christian lives should be a candle – "Let your light shine in the darkness," Jesus said – and if the darkness is offended, so be it. Setting the earth on fire is a skill Christians have to acquire.
