Clara May Rowland

Throughout the church world during the season of Lent, people strive to become better Christians. Therefore, we should not look upon it as a forbidding or a sad season of fasting and prayer, but as a spiritual experience that means much to all of us if we enter into its observance in the right spirit. Primarily the purpose of Lent is to prepare us mentally, physically, and spiritually for a new awakening; to resurrect us out of old states of consciousness into a new realization of life; and to permit us to re-consecrate and re-dedicate ourselves to the will and the work of Jesus. Through our spiritual awakening, we shall find renewed life and health, a joyous freedom from burdens, and best of all, peace of mind. Our preparation consists, first of all, of a careful and honest appraisal of our thinking habits in order to see how they can be improved. In early days, penitent Christians began Lent by acknowledging their sins and by entering upon a period of public penance. Today, we know that we can find release from error and the effects of erroneous thinking in the past by bringing our mind and heart into unity with the Christ-mind so that its divine ideas may guide our thinking into constructive channels. We always have the help of the Spirit of truth within us. During the Lenten season, we become especially aware of the desire in our hearts to expand our spiritual nature. The power of the Spirit at work in us will back us up in our desire to prove we are truly children of God. During Lent, let us re-consecrate our eyes, our ears, and our tongues to this Truth.

We Are Climbing Jacob's Ladder

Gen. 28:10-17

African-American spiritual

1 We are climb-ing Ja-cob's lad-der, we are climb-ing Ja-cob's lad-der,
 2 Ev-ery round goes high-er, high-er, ev-ery round goes high-er, high-er,
 3 Rise, shine, give God glo-ry, rise, shine, give God glo-ry, we are climb-ing Ja-cob's lad-der, bear-ers of the cross.

 ev-ery round goes high-er, high-er, bear-ers of the cross.
 rise, shine, give God glo-ry, bear-ers of the cross.

Like many spirituals, this one uses a story from the Hebrew scriptures as its starting point and the element of the ladder as a creative device to draw us into the narrative. In like manner, the following twentieth-century adaption of the song by Carole Etzler employs the story of Sarah, the matriarch of the Hebrew people, and extends the direction of the pilgrimage from the upward climb of the ladder to the outward embrace of a circle.
