Prelude My Chains Are Gone
Peter Black

(Please use this time for quiet reflection and preparation for worship)

Welcome & Announcements

Lighting of Altar Candles & Ringing in the Hour

Let us recognize the light of the world within us and ring in the hour of worship.

Introit (please stand)

Arise, Shine

Arise, shine for your light has come!

And the glory of our God has risen upon you like the sun!

Lift your eyes, look around, rejoice! Lift your eyes, look around, rejoice!

Call to Worship

Psalm 29

Reader: Michael Valdez

One: The voice of God is over the waters;

Many: The voice of God is powerful, full of majesty.

One: The voice of God shakes the wilderness;

Many: The voice of God flashes forth in flames of fire.

One: God sits enthroned over the flood;

Many: God sits enthroned as ruler forever.

One: May God give strength to the people!

Many: May God bless the people with peace! Amen.

Opening Hymn,

Come to the Water

(Green Gather Hymnal No. 502)

(Find Music at the end of this program)

Unison Prayer

Creating, Calling, and Faithful God: Jesus, baptized in the river Jordan by John the Baptist, became living water for us and embraces all of us. We follow Jesus with our baptism, marking a starting place for new life and new ways of being. We come to this time and place to be with you, to thank you, and to learn from you. May our time together be like your creation of the Light that you called “good.” May it be that you would call us good as we respond to your call to be lights for the world. Amen.

Assurance of Grace and Peace

One: Peace be with you.

Many: And also with you.

One: Let us offer one another a sign of Peace.

Passing the Peace

Draw the Circle Wide

Draw the circle wide, Draw it wider still.

Let this be our song, no one stands alone, standing side by side.

Draw the circle wide.

Words of Integration & Guidance

Rev. Dawn Hutchings

Jesus goes down to the Jordan for a different kind of baptism: Not a baptism for the repentance of sin, but a baptism in which God claims Jesus as his beloved in whom God is well pleased. The best kinds of parents that I know don't keep their children in a state of constant fear and guilt. They don't use the threat of punishment as a way to encourage their children to grow. The best kinds of parents encourage their children to grow by loving, nurturing and encouraging them. Really good parents know the importance of empowering their children. If you read the baptism story of Jesus carefully, you can almost hear the Creator of all that is and all that ever shall be beaming with pride saying, "That's my beautiful child! Just look at him! Isn't he marvelous! I'm so very pleased with him!" No wonder the skies opened up and the Holy Spirit descended on him! What parent wouldn't empower a child that pleased them so? It's time for us to get rid of the image of God as an abusive parent and begin to see God as the best parent we know how to be. That image will still fail to reflect all that God is, but surely it will give us a better glimpse of some of what God is. And then we can begin to see that like any good parent our God is a God who empowers us. Then we can begin to see that in our baptism the power of the Holy Spirit was given to us. That we too are children of God, and that God delights in us. Maybe then we can begin to claim our inheritance as children of God. Maybe we will see that the power of forgiveness has been given to us and that mercy is ours to bestow. And empowered by the Spirit, we can grow into all that God created us to be.

My heart is glad to say the words: you are holy God.

(Please be seated)

Breaking of the Bread We Share a Hunger

We share a hunger: a hunger for justice in our world, that all may find joy, all may find wholeness, all may find peace.

We share a hunger: a hunger to feel the light of Christ shining through us, shining on all, bringing God's reign.

Sharing of the Bread & Cup

(grape juice only on both sides of the aisle)

Receive the Bread of Life. Amen.

The Cup of Love, the Drink of Compassion. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Mother/Father, always and everywhere, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever.

Amen.
