Welcome & Announcements

Lighting of Altar Candles & Ringing in the Hour

Let us recognize the light of the world within us and ring in the hour of worship.

Introit (please stand) We Gather in Love

We come to gather in our weakness, to reconnect as seekers, and worship one true God. We come to light our lives on fire, with mercy we inspire, we gather all as one. United in one Spirit, each different in appearance, all are welcome in the house of God. We gather in love.

Reader: Jerry Coates

Adapted from Psalm 133

One: It is truly wonderful when we live together in peace.

Many: It is like the dew falling on mountains, where the Lord has promised to bless his people with life forevermore.

One: How good and pleasant it is when God's people live together in unity!

Many: It is as if the dew were falling on God's mountain.

One: For there the Lord bestows his blessing, even life forevermore.

Many: How very good and pleasant it is when kindred live together in unity!

One: Oh how Good it is, this place of unity

Many: It is like the dew of which falls on the mountains, for there the Lord ordained his blessing, life forevermore.

Opening Hymn

Give Me a Clean Heart

(sing twice)

New Century Hymnal No.188

(See music at the end of this document)

Unison Prayer

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy. O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Assurance of Grace and Peace

One: Peace be with you.

Many: And also with you.

One: Let us offer one another a sign of Peace.

Passing the Peace

We Pray for Peace

We pray for peace, for peace among the nations.

We pray for peace, good will among the people.

'Til love comes down like a summer rain;

'til the rivers of justice flow again,

'til the day of jubilee has come;

we pray for peace upon our planet home.

Words of Integration & Guidance

Fr. Richard Rohr

Let us center ourselves during Lent with a heart bent towards forgiveness. First, identify a hurt or an offense in your life. Remember the feelings you first experienced with this hurt and feel them the way you first felt them. Notice how this shows up in your body. Paying attention to your body's sensations keeps you from jumping into the mind and its dualistic games of good guy/bad guy, win/lose, either/or. After you can identify the hurt and feel it in your body, welcome it. Stop fighting it. Stop splitting and blaming. Welcome the grief. Welcome the anger. It's hard to do, but for some reason, when we name it, feel it, and welcome it, transformation can begin. When you're able to welcome your own pain, you will in some way feel the pain of the whole world. This is what it means to be human — and also what it means to be divine. You can hold this immense pain because you too are being held by the very One who went through this process on the cross. Jesus was holding all the pain of the world; though the world had come to hate him, he refused to hate it back. Now hand all of this pain — yours and the world's — over to God. Let it go. Ask for the grace of forgiveness for the person who hurt you, for the event that offended you, for the reality of suffering in each life. I can't promise the pain will leave easily or quickly. To forgive is not to forget. But letting go frees up a great deal of soul-energy that liberates a level of life you didn't know existed. It leads you to your True Self.

Give Me a Clean Heart

Ps. 51:1-12

Margaret J. Douroux, 1970; alt.

Give me a clean heart so I may serve you.

The first system of the score consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line is written on a single staff with a treble clef and a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The lyrics are "Give me a clean heart so I may serve you." The piano accompaniment is written on two staves (treble and bass clefs) and features a steady eighth-note bass line and chords in the right hand.

God, fix my heart so that I may be used by you.

The second system continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are "God, fix my heart so that I may be used by you." The piano accompaniment includes some chordal textures with slurs and ties.

For I'm not worthy of all these blessings.

The third system continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are "For I'm not worthy of all these blessings." The piano accompaniment maintains the rhythmic pattern established in the previous systems.

Give me a clean heart and I'll follow you.

The fourth system concludes the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are "Give me a clean heart and I'll follow you." The piano accompaniment ends with a final chord and a fermata over the bass line.
