Call to Worship

Psalm 118

Reader: Carol Rice

One: Give thanks to God, for God is good;

Many: God's steadfast love endures forever!

One: Open to me the gates of righteousness;

Many: Open the gates so I may enter and give thanks to God.

One: I thank you, O God, for you have answered me.

Many: You are my God, and I will give thanks to you.

One: Blessed is the one who comes in the name of God.

Many: The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.

One: This is God's doing; it is marvelous in our eyes.

Many: This is the day that God has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it.

Unison Prayer

Blessing of the Palms

Loving God, today we begin a journey towards wholeness. We remember Jesus' entrance into Jerusalem riding on a donkey, being greeted with waving palm branches. Jerusalem represents our vision of a place of wholeness. The donkey represents meekness and a willingness to surrender to our Christ nature. The palms signify our receptivity and enthusiasm at welcoming the Christ light into our lives. Therefore, O God, send your Spirit upon these palm branches this morning. May they serve as a symbol for us of the promise of Jerusalem and a reminder for us to keep moving forward with enthusiasm on our spiritual journey to welcome and to resurrect the Light of the Christ in us. Amen.

Assurance of Grace and Peace

One: Peace be with you.

Many: And also with you.

One: Let us offer one another a sign of Peace.

Passing the Peace

We Pray for Peace

We pray for peace, for peace among the nations.

We pray for peace, good will among the people.

'Til love comes down like a summer rain;

'til the rivers of justice flow again,

'til the day of jubilee has come;

we pray for peace upon our planet home.

Words of Integration & Guidance

Rev. Kathy Dwyer, pastor of UCC church in Arlington, VA

I have always struggled with thinking of Jesus as “King.” I have never lived in a monarchy so using words like “Lord,” “Prince,” “Master,” and “King” have little meaning for me. Jesus did not call himself by any of the elevated titles we often attribute to him. John Knox, a 16th century Scottish clergyman, who is considered the founder of Presbyterianism, argued that “thinking that Jesus thought of himself in such grand terms raises serious questions about the mental health of Jesus.” These titles conjure up notions of power that are in sharp contrast with what I know of Jesus. That is the point, actually. In the book, The Last Days, Marcus Borg and John Dominic Crossan describe how there were actually two processions on what Christians now call Palm Sunday; there was a military procession from the West led by the Roman Governor Pilate and the peaceful entrance, a counterprocession, from the East led by Jesus. Pilate entered on a war horse; Jesus entered on a donkey. Pilate came in the name of Caesar. Jesus came “in the name of the Lord.” Jesus and Pilate represented two starkly different ways of being: Pilate to domination, violence, and glory; Jesus committed to service, non-violence, and humility. To “come in the name of the Lord” was to come with a set of values that stood in contrast to the State. Today, for us “to come in the name of the Lord” and to let Jesus be “King” as opposed to the State often means we will be counter-cultural people. May this Holy Week strengthen us for the challenge.

Doxology

Lenten Doxology

Praise God throughout these forty days.

Praise Christ, our Lord, whom God did raise.

And praise the Spirit who imparts

God's love in Christ into our hearts.

Amen.

Celebration of Holy Communion

One: God be with you.

Many: And also with you.

One: Lift up your hearts.

Many: We lift them up to God.

One: Let us give thanks to God.

Many: It is good to give God thanks & praise

Breaking of the Bread Let Us Be Bread

*Let us be bread, blessed by the Lord, broken and shared, life for the world.
Let us be wine, love freely poured,
let us be one with the Lord.*

Sharing of the Bread & Cup

(grape juice only on both sides of the aisle)

Receive the Bread of Life. Amen.

The Cup of Love, the Drink of Compassion. Amen.

Walk With Me

The Lord's Prayer

Aramaic translation

Our Mother/Father, always and everywhere, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Hymn of Sending

Were You There

Verses 1-5

(Green Gather Hymnal No. 416)

Benediction

(We will remain silent as we leave the church.)
