Call to Worship

Reader: Michael Valdez

One: God of Life,

Many: You are as near to us as our breath.

One: Touch our eyes,

Many: that we may see you in one another.

One: Open our ears,

Many: that we may hear your voice in the cries of the oppressed.

One: Enter our hearts,

Many: that we may be filled with your love toward all people.

One: Come, O God of life and breath and wholeness.

Many: Show us the way to new life. Grant us the courage to be people of your Way.

*Opening Hymn,

I Am For You

(Green Gather Hymnal No.704)

(Find Music at the end of this program)

Unison Prayer

Prayer for Labor Sunday, UCC.org

Loving, Working God, on this Sunday we ask your special blessing on all people who labor, either for pay or as volunteers, in jobs or at school, in the workplace or at home, in the U.S. and around the world. We especially pray for your blessings on workers who do not have jobs and for those whose inadequate pay does not allow them to live the full life you intend for each of us. Creator God, help us to build a new world in the midst of the old. A world where all workers are valued. A world where those who clean houses are also able to buy houses to live in. A world where those who grow food can also afford to eat their fill. A world where those who serve and care for others are, themselves, also served and cared for. We pray for the coming of a world where all workers everywhere share in the abundance that you have given us. We ask these things knowing that you give us the courage and strength to live out our faith in the workplace and the marketplace, as well as in the sanctuary. Amen.

Assurance of Grace and Peace

One: Peace be with you.

Many: And also with you.

One: Let us offer one another a sign of Peace.

Passing the Peace Spirit, Fill Me

Spirit come and fill me, fill me with your peace, fill me with your joy and your love.

Spirit come and show me, show me how to care, show me how to share your light.

Help me give my hand to those in need, let my heart be open to receive.

When we share your love we can work together to heal this broken world.

Spirit come and fill us, fill us with your peace, fill us with your joy and your love.

Spirit come and show us, show us how to care, show us how to share your light.

Words of Integration & Guidance

By Sister Joan Chittister

To become “God-like” is the most common – and the most elusive – of all spiritual aspirations. What can that desire possibly mean? A medieval mystic answers the question directly. “When are we like God?” the mystic Mechthild of Magdeburg writes. “I will tell you. Insofar as we love compassion and practice it steadfastly, to that extent, do we resemble the heavenly Creator who practices these things ceaselessly in us.” When we, too, “know of what we’re made,” there is no room in us for anything but mercy for the other. Mercy takes us outside ourselves. It makes us one with the rest of the world. Or as Martin Luther King, Jr. reminds us, “The first question which the priest and the Levite asked when they saw the wounded man dying on the street was, “If I stop to help this man, what will happen to me?” But the Good Samaritan reversed the question. He said: “If I don’t stop to help this man, what will happen to him?” A sign in Springdale, Connecticut makes the whole subject clear. It reads: “There is so much good in the worst of us and so much bad in the best of us, that it’s rather hard to tell which of us ought to reform the rest of us.” A Japanese proverb reminds us, “It is often the most wicked who know the nearest path to the shrine.” Don’t let anybody fool you: Goodness is as goodness does. Be careful who you call “bad” simply because the “good” people have named them so. God, it seems, is far less quick to judge.

A New Identity

Breaking of the Bread There is Room for All

There is room for all in the shadow of God's wing;

There is room for all at the table of God's love.

And I exalt and sing "We do this in remembrance of you."

There is room for all. There is room for all.

Sharing of the Bread & Cup

(grape juice only on both sides of the aisle)

Receive the Bread of Life. Amen.

The Cup of Love, the Drink of Compassion. Amen.

*The Lord's Prayer

Our Mother/Father, always and everywhere, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever.
Amen.

*Hymn of Sending      Whatsoever You Do (vs. 1-3)

670 Whatsoever You Do

Refrain

Verses

1. When I was hun - gry, you gave me to eat;
2. When I was home-less, you o - pened your door;
3. When I was wea - ry, you helped me find rest;
4. When I was lit - tle, you taught me to read;
5. When in a pris - on, you came to my cell;
6. In a strange coun - try, you made me at home;
7. Hurt in a bat - tle, you bound up my wounds;
8. When I was Black, or La - ti - no, or white;
9. When I was a - ged, you both - ered to smile;
10. You saw me cov - ered with spit - tle and blood;
11. When I was laughed at, you stood by my side;

- When I was thirst - y, you gave me to drink.
 When I was na - ked, you gave me your coat.
 When I was anx - ious, you calmed all my fears.
 When I was lone - ly, you gave me your love.
 When on a sick - bed, you cared for my needs.
 Seek - ing em - ploy - ment, you found me a job.
 Search - ing for kind - ness, you held out your hand.
 Mocked and in - sult - ed, you car - ried my cross.
 When I was rest - less, you lis - tened and cared.
 You knew my fea - tures, though grim - y with sweat.
 When I was hap - py, you shared in my joy.

Now en - ter in - to the home of my Fa - ther.
